of Mid-Maryland, Inc.
"A Charitable, Non-Profit Organization"

The St. Andrew's Society of Mid-Maryland, Inc. perpetuates Scottish traditions and culture through education and demonstration by hosting and participating in Scottish and Celtic events.

From the drone of bagpipes, to the Highland games, to the traditional Burns "Nicht" Supper, Kirkin o' the Tartan, Hogmanay and First Footing (New Years Eve), the annual Celtic Festival, and all things Scottish, the Society's events are run entirely by volunteers with no paid staff.

In addition to hosting at least eight events, the Society participates in at last seven Scottish-Celtic events annually. The Burns "Nicht" Supper draws almost 200 attendees while the Celtic Festival brings close to 9,000 to experience a bit of Scotland without the hassle of travel. Our Hogmanay celebration has grown close to 100 participants; members and non-members alike.

To further promote Scottish ancestry and its future the Society also raises funds to provide grants and scholarships and has awarded five to local students pursuing Scottish Country Dancing, Highland Dancing, and bagpipes and drums. The following local organizations have been designated beneficiaries of our annual Celtic Festival the past five years.
